

How to write a Claim to Judge for interfering in man's right

Case: Man at court has given Notice to sitting Judge to put case before queen's bench and invoke common law (i.e. man has FLIPPED statutes court to common law court). But sitting Judge tries his utmost best to frustrate man and keeps interfering in man's right.

Always write claim by hand, i.e. hand-written. Copy exactly the text below the dotted line as they appear. What's in CAPITAL LETTERS must be written in CAPITAL LETTERS. Update text in red.

Man does not need to sign the notice because his own hand-writing says a living, breathing human being is the author and is physically present in court to handle claim.

The hefty compensation required by man from sitting Judge will get Judge to act accordingly. The compensation can come up to a hefty $86,400 per every 24-hour day!
